

TRUTH PLEA IS ADVANCED BY MANNING

Minister Issued Rally Cry
To Social Credit
Groups

People of this province should make a point of informing themselves of the truth regarding vital issues at stake in the province, Mr. Ernest C. Manning, provincial secretary and minister of trade and industry informed the Edmonton Prophetic Bible Conference at the Strand theatre on Sunday.

The meeting was under the sponsorship of the Crucis Hill, West Prague and North Storme Social Credit groups.

"I want to urge you to give to these, our sponsors, all credit and appreciation for whatever profit and enjoyment you receive from this service tonight," said Mr. Manning. "I trust also that none of us will soon forget the loss counsel passed on to us by our sponsors in the theme topic which they suggested for our consideration, namely, The Truth Will Prevail. If We Hold Fast."

POSITIVE FACT
"That, my friends is a statement of positive fact corroborated by the testimony of history all down the ages. Ever since the fall of man the human race has been subjected to the far-reaching consequences of deception, misrepresentation and deliberate falsehoods. Mankind is in constant jeopardy to fear, doubt and uncertainty, because of the countless enemies and intrigues promulgated on every side. Long years ago, the Master himself once said, 'Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free.'"

"First, we must see we know the truth. The man or woman who remains in willful ignorance of the vital truths of life even though a knowledge of them is easily obtainable, cannot plead ignorance as justification for believing and supporting that which is false. Some people think they will plead ignorance of the gospel. This will not avail. God has made it possible for them to know the truth. I cannot give the same name to be true of material issues. What about the man who suggests and promotes that which is false and who pleads ignorance of the true facts. He could have found out the truth and he cannot evade the grave responsibility in this manner."

HOLD TO TRUTH
"Second, hold fast that which we know to be truth. This is most important. Spiritual issues also are important."

"Third, I would like to add a third. You and I are responsible to promote truth. Tell others. Clear up misrepresentations, mis-statements and other incorrect things. 'I trust that everyone of our listeners and particularly our groups will give serious consideration to these three phases of the topic suggested by our sponsors.'"

"Every group should see to it that it is fully informed of the true and complete facts regarding the vital issues at stake in this province to day. I assure you every effort is being made to make and justify the true facts. And I repeat once more, don't be influenced by such tactics."

Carried In State

Heralded by the staccato notes of six silver trumpets and cheered by cries of "Viva El Papa," Plun XII is carried on the Sedia Gestatoria or portable throne to St. Peter's Basilica to be crowned. Fifty thousand, including pilgrims of church and state, witnessed the colorful cortege, many in the Basilica.

Benes, Self-Exiled Ex-President, Breaks His Political Silence

United Press
Exclusive to Edmonton Bulletin
CHICAGO, March 20.—Dr. Eduard Benes, self-exiled former president of Czechoslovakia, who fled to Germany following the Munich conference, broke his political silence today when he addressed a group of Czechs and Slovaks to "unite for the future freedom of our beloved country." He called the death of the Czechoslovak republic this week "a shocking international crime."

Benes, second president of the republic, was central Europe's first to resign during the Sudetenland crisis last fall, broke a political silence he has maintained since then to address his message Wednesday night to a mass meeting of 6,000 Chicago Czechoslovaks.

The message was read to the meeting by Jan Masaryk, son of first president of Czechoslovakia, who was a visiting professor at the University of Chicago, remained in his hotel room.

Masaryk read to the meeting a prepared statement in which Benes stated that one of four powers participating in the Munich conference which awarded the Sudetenland to Germany "solely promised to guarantee the existence and safety of Czechoslovak territory."

He said he was wistfully divided

Approval Given
To Amendments
On Zoning Laws

Approval to amendments to zoning bylaws of Edmonton, Calgary and several other points was given by the Town and Rural Planning Advisory Board in 1938, according to the annual report of the board, released on Saturday by Hon. W. A. Fallick, minister of public works.

The board, established under the Town Planning Act, is headed by Mr. Fallick, other members being Mr. W. Monahan, deputy minister of public works; S. W. Gray, R.C., solicitor to the attorney general; and A. P. C. Belcher, director of surveys.

Two amendments to the Edmonton zoning bylaws were approved during the year along with two new zoning bylaws for the village of Hays and the municipal district of Sheppard.

Calgary's amendments regulate and control height of buildings in the vicinity of the municipal airport.

Charlesworth To Hold His Job In Irrigation Zone

CALGARY, March 20.—Appointment of L. C. Charlesworth as new manager of the eastern irrigation district, will not be interfered with by the provincial government, and no attempt will be made to oust him from the post of trustee, it was learned today from the board of directors, including members of the board, passed through the city on his return from Edmonton.

E. L. Gray, provincial Liberal leader who resigned the R.D. management recently will return in the post until election of another trustee, April 16, it was reported.

The territory and is occupying it with its army. I know that after what has happened the Czechoslovak people cannot defend themselves and are obliged to give in to brute force," Benes' statement said.

Masaryk predicted that England and France "will pay in the future for their betrayal of Czechoslovakia."

Cries of "shame shame" greeted his mention of France and England. When a resolution to Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain of England was adopted, the audience shouted:

"Send it to the umbrella too. It does the thinking."

Tribute Is Paid To J. C. Buckley

GLEICHEN, Alta., March 20.—Tribute to his career as whip in the U. S. government in Alberta for 14 years, 1921 to 1935, was paid to J. C. Buckley, Gleichen, when Mr. and Mrs. Buckley celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday. Both had been actively associated with the United Farmers movement, and the strenuous days of political activities were recalled as they celebrated the anniversary in their home.

Lucky Winner

One of the lucky winners in the $200,000 movie quiz contest, is Mrs. Elizabeth Hennessey, of St. Francis, who won $20,000 in the contest in which 3,000 contestants took part.

Mexican Oil Situation Now Getting Clearer

MEXICO CITY, March 20.—President Lázaro Cárdenas announced today the oil nationalization problem was "reaching definite solution through a plan of cooperation" offered by "the companies affected."

The president spoke to a crowd of an estimated 35,000 to 40,000 persons gathered in a demonstration celebrating the expropriation act taken a year ago yesterday.

Cardenas said the plan offered by the companies "would include fresh investments in cash for the development of a plan of co-operation under which the government will, however, have to maintain control of the industry."

Communist Leader Says U.S. Leads All Nations Combatting Fascism

By NORMAN DEUEL
British United Press, Toronto Cable
To The Edmonton Bulletin
MOSCOW, March 20.—The United States, described as the "greatest capitalist country in the world," has led all nations in combatting the growth of fascism, according to a report approved Monday by the 18th all-union congress of the Communist party.

The report, made by Nikolai Z. Maslensky, a member of the executive committee of the Communist International, said that universal reaction of Fascism had strengthened the Communist party's influence and popularity. Growth of the party from 20,000 in 1926 to 1,000,000 in 1938, Maslensky said, was due to its activity in assisting industrial trade unions because it has recently developed its work among members of the reactionary American Federation of Labor, and because it has carried on the struggle for restoration of trade union unity on the basis of the class struggle.

The weakest point in the American Communist party's strength he said, was its poor contact with the farming masses.

The report praised the foreign policy of the United States as "creating a blue of constant expansion" and bitterly attacked the policies of Great Britain.

Conscription Of Wealth Demanded

SASKATON, March 20.—Conscription of wealth before Canadian manpower is called upon to engage in defence of the British Empire was urged in a message telegraphed today to Prime Minister Mackenzie King by the United Farmers of Canada. It was signed by Frank Skelton, secretary of the Saskatchewan section.

Second Of Two Rescuers Makes His Identity Known

Walter K. Davidson, 28, mile four, Thomas Brook, became known Saturday as the second of two men who rescued Bobby Fleck, aged 18 months, from the burning home of Mr. and Mrs. William Fleck, 910, avenue, last Wednesday.

From outside his home across the street from the Fleck home, Davidson heard Mrs. Fleck screaming that her babies were being burned to death in the flaming building, and immediately rushed to the home and went in the front door. David Davidson of 1413 32nd street, went in the back door at the same time, and when the 18-month-old baby was found unconscious in the smoke-filled interior, Davidson was rescued a few minutes later by firemen.

Davidson carried the child outside and handed him to a woman, then returned to the house to search for Raymond Fleck, 3½ years, who was still in the building. He was unable to locate the second child, however, and had to leave the house for air.

A further by trade, Mr. Davidson is at present unemployed.

Toronto Military Officer Snatched

TORONTO, March 20.—Klimashevsky was seen in his automobile near Galt city limits Saturday night. Lord William D. Winkler, attached in military district headquarters at London, Ont., was forced to lie on the floor of the back seat with his two captors drove silently around western Ontario before abandoning the machine in Ontario. The army of officers was not harmed.

LIFE INSURANCE

BOARD OF CANADIAN HOMES

CANADIANS KNOW THE VALUE OF LIFE INSURANCE

Through Co-operative, Educational
Advertising in Daily Newspapers

TODAY, millions of Canadian policyholders are well-informed on the important facts concerning their Life Insurance—thanks to 18 years of continuous advertising sponsored by the Canadian Life Insurance Officers' Association.

Timely and educational, this national advertising appears in 73 daily newspapers across Canada—constantly building goodwill for the institution of life insurance.

As a result, Canadians know that they can save and be safe through life insurance. They know that here in Canada's greatest co-operative enterprise, in which more than 3,500,000 policyholders are banded together for mutual protection for their dependants and for their own old age.

They know that life insurance pays out more than $200,000 every working day to policyholders and their beneficiaries—that it is truly "The Guardian of Canadian Homes."

They know that life insurance assets are owned by the policyholders—and that life insurance money helps to finance our governments, municipalities, public utilities, industries, homes and farms.

Canadian Daily Newspapers have proved invaluable as a medium for life insurance co-operative advertising. In the 18 years in which this campaign has been sponsored, the amount of life insurance in force in Canada has more than doubled.

This advertisement was prepared by Macdonald Advertising Co., Limited, who have been in charge of the co-operative advertising of life insurance companies in Canada, since 1921.

BURSARIES TO BE PRESENTED ON WEDNESDAY

Students Will Receive Prizes From Canadian Legion Here

Distribution of Canadian Legion bursaries, awarded annually to students with high standing in Edmonton schools, will take place at 8 p.m. Wednesday in the Memorial Hall, with Mayor John W. Fry officiating.

Seventeen students from six community leagues will receive bursaries. Each year the Edmonton branch of the Legion, in co-operation with the Federation of Community Leagues, awards a cash prize and suitably inscribed gold medal to a student from each of the 23 community leagues in the city who receive the highest number of points in his or her general progress standing during the year.

RASH OF AWARDS

Points are awarded on the following basis: 60 per cent by the department of education, for academic standing, 30 per cent by the pupils' teacher for deportment, 10 per cent for community league activity which is awarded by the league.

Mayor Fry will present the bursaries and L. Lloyd Jones, president of the Federation, will act as chairman. Dr. H. C. Newland, principal supervisor of schools, will be the principal presenter. Other presenters will be J. McLean, president of the Edmonton branch of the Legion, and the Edmonton students and their friends.

A. E. O'Connell, registrar at the University and honorary president of the Federation, will also speak.

ALL INVITED

Relatives and friends of the students, as well as all community league members, are invited to attend the gathering.

Following is the list of winners and their respective community leagues:

Mary E. Colville, Alberta League; Jeanie Gustin, Bonnie Dorn, Florence I. Bell, Cordelia; Russell Lattin, North Edmonton; R. C. Clemens, Oliver; W. Wesley, Kitchener; Calder, Margaret; Helen, Cloverdale; Janice A. Rice, Eastview; L. K. Blacklock, Forest Heights; L. Brennan, Jasper Place; James King, Edward Park; N. Reid, McCreedy; Maxine A. Alexander, Ritchie; Mrs. G. O. G. Robert C. Day, Rosedale; Helen McCreedy, Santa Center; Stanley D. Draklin, Westmount.

POLICE RAID

SPORT CLUB: 28 ARRESTED

Three trips of the Black Maria were necessary to transport 28 men to the police station at 11:46 p.m. Saturday following a raid on the city police morality squad on the Alberta Sporting Club, on the second floor above 1003 Jasper avenue.

One of the men taken in the drive on the alleged gambling was H. H. Crofton, charged with being the keeper of a gaming house, while the other 27 men were charged with being unlawfully found in a gaming house.

DIMES RATTLE INTO JARS TO AID CHILDREN

The last day for dinner. The last day for dinner. The last day for dinner.

Ald. Douglas Groat's early morning was heard humming this little refrain as he drove across the high level bridge extending over the fine response received for the Parade of the children at the University hospital equipped with infantile paralysis.

Ald. Groat is manager of this campaign, sponsored by the Junior Hospital League, and jars for the dinner have been placed in every city bank. The objective this year was 10,000 dinners, and Ald. Groat thinks it has been reached.

Citizens Bank In Spring Sun Over Week-End

Despite the heavy going over slush-covered streets, Edmontonians went in droves over the week-end to bank in spring-like temperatures which rose to 40 at above Sunday afternoon and 56 above on Saturday.

Lowest temperature Monday morning was 22 above at 8:30 a.m. At 8:30 it had jumped to 26 above.

Temperatures in the north with the exception of Hylle and House River with 30 above and Beaverburg with 30 above, all over the freezing mark, highest reading being 46 at St. Mary's.

It was cooler in the far north, with readings in the high 20s at Fort Smith to 26 below at Aklavik.

Woman Injured

Mrs. G. E. Hignell, 1018 12th avenue, sustained bruise to her left side when she was knocked down by an auto driven by J. H. Rutherford, 3728 44th avenue, at 11:30 p.m. Saturday at 8 p.m. She is being treated in the hospital for observation and treatment.

WINGS NORTH

In spite of the fact that warm weather and reports of unusual conditions in the north have not yet broken up this spring there has been a rush to the north as yet. Miners and prospectors are trickling in steadily increasing numbers, however, and the next few weeks should be most of them back in the field.

Bob Randall, Mackenzie Air Service, was northbound Monday with Dr. John A. Allan, of the University of Alberta, and Mrs. Allan, and their infant child for Goldfields, where she will join her husband, a C.M. and S. employee.

Stan McMillan, M.A.S., arrived in from Yellowknife Sunday with two passengers, mail and freight. McMillan is expected to arrive from Yellowknife later this afternoon.

Yvonne Southern planes were busy Monday. Southern Luck was southbound from Fort St. John, Ralph Oakes was southbound from Whitecourt, and the Treadwell was freighted at Prince George. Alex Dumas was on charter work at Fort McLeod.

Major Fry will present the bursaries and L. Lloyd Jones, president of the Federation, will act as chairman. Dr. H. C. Newland, principal supervisor of schools, will be the principal presenter.

Other presenters will be J. McLean, president of the Edmonton branch of the Legion, and the Edmonton students and their friends.

DISALLOWANCE OF DEBT LAW IS REQUESTED

probably elsewhere in the world, all business and industry of the west is based on the credit of the grain grower to exact a price for his grain, as well as his other products. It is "mild up there for the first time this winter," he reported.

The findings of the Bracken Conference decisively indicate that the reasons set out in the report of the proceedings of that conference, no price will be available to him until such time as substantial production ceases in other countries.

FACE PARALYSIS

In the absence of such a return for his labor, the grain grower cannot obtain the product of other industries nor the services of other industries, and the result is a face paralysis.

The natural course of events, the disappearance in large numbers of the present quill limited by grain and debt-paying power of all classes in the west, will exert a quite unfortunate influence on the industrial, financial and commercial life of the west.

"Authoritative sources estimate the cost of production to be 60 cents per bushel. The present market price at Fort William is approximately 60 cents per bushel. Northern, when translated into average price covering all grades of wheat, is approximately 50 cents, or 10 cents less than the cost of production. It is recalled that the 1932 crop was marketed at an all time price of 40 cents per bushel.

Resources of the western farmer are not so plentiful as they were in the preceding years, that neither the grain growing industry of the West nor those secondary industries and trades that indirectly depend on agriculture could again survive a similar experience.

LOW PRICE

Loss of Western purchasing power exerts unfavorable influence on the employment situation throughout the Dominion. A great deal of the existing unemployment in the West is closely allied to the low price of grain. Farmers cannot pay for the services of the trades and service industries, and the result is a face paralysis.

Ald. Groat is manager of this campaign, sponsored by the Junior Hospital League, and jars for the dinner have been placed in every city bank. The objective this year was 10,000 dinners, and Ald. Groat thinks it has been reached.

SALESMASHIP IS CHAMPIONED BY MACKENZIE

The wholesaler and the wholesaler are still important links in the modern chain of distribution, and by adding time and place value to the goods they sell, they are adding value to the service to the communities they serve.

Colin D. MacKenzie upheld this view in the course of an address delivered at the 21st annual banquet of the United Commercial Travellers of the Edmonton division of the United Commercial Travellers of the Dominion on Saturday evening.

The featured speaker of the evening, Mr. MacKenzie, in an address speaking with well outlined the importance of the wholesale salesman and the history of the profession.

30th PRESENT

He told more than 200 persons present at the banquet that the wholesaler was one of the oldest and most honorable of professions. It is back to the time of the Romans, he pointed out that while in chain of distribution, the wholesaler and the wholesaler are still important links in the modern chain of distribution, and by adding time and place value to the goods they sell, they are adding value to the service to the communities they serve.

Colin D. MacKenzie upheld this view in the course of an address delivered at the 21st annual banquet of the United Commercial Travellers of the Edmonton division of the United Commercial Travellers of the Dominion on Saturday evening.

Through The Mill

Getting squiffed on Saturday night is not an unusual experience in itself and provided it is accompanied with a certain amount of discretion need have no undesirable after-effects. But one young man got squiffed and then his discretion deserted him.

As he became properly squiffed he ran out of town. So he whizzed up to the nearest place to borrow some. But his friend was not at home. So his friend had him with same and pawned it for the magnificent sum of one buck-cash.

With the buck he proceeds to get even squiffer than before. Old friend returns, finds coat missing, notified cops. Dicks make a search, find a buck and return it to the person who pawned it, and then pick up his friend.

Boy friend is lugged to the house where he is found. He is charged with theft. "It is okay and I want the cash withdrawn," she said.

Girl friend, thoroughly present, appears in police court Monday to stand for her friend who has been charged with theft. "It is okay and I want the cash withdrawn," she said.

SALESMASHIP IS CHAMPIONED BY MACKENZIE

The wholesaler and the wholesaler are still important links in the modern chain of distribution, and by adding time and place value to the goods they sell, they are adding value to the service to the communities they serve.

Colin D. MacKenzie upheld this view in the course of an address delivered at the 21st annual banquet of the United Commercial Travellers of the Edmonton division of the United Commercial Travellers of the Dominion on Saturday evening.

The featured speaker of the evening, Mr. MacKenzie, in an address speaking with well outlined the importance of the wholesale salesman and the history of the profession.

30th PRESENT

He told more than 200 persons present at the banquet that the wholesaler was one of the oldest and most honorable of professions. It is back to the time of the Romans, he pointed out that while in chain of distribution, the wholesaler and the wholesaler are still important links in the modern chain of distribution, and by adding time and place value to the goods they sell, they are adding value to the service to the communities they serve.
